

Advertisement

There are many inventions from the Renaissance. Read over the following information about inventions and create an advertisement from the invention of your choice. Your advertisement should include the following information:

- Clearly written invention name
- Description of product
- Slogan-How will you pull people in to purchase your product?
- Explain how the consumer's (buyers) life will be easier once they purchase this product
- Neatly drawn and colored as a newspaper or magazine article

